

PERSONAL INFORMATION CLIENT CONSENT FORM

BETWEEN: Triple Crown Insurance Brokers Corporation AND: _____

The client hereby acknowledges that the Broker has been retained by the Client to acquire or renew a policy or policies of insurance or to provide Consulting and/or Risk Management Services for the Client, under which the individual client, or named individuals in addition to the Client, or where the Client is a commercial or other entity, is employees, or servants and representatives (hereby collectively called "Insured Individuals") may be insured.

As part of the application for new or renewal insurance coverage(s), the Client hereby authorizes the Broker to collect, use and disclose personal information of such Insured Individuals as required and as permitted pursuant to relevant privacy law or other laws.

The Client hereby expressly consents to the Broker collecting, using or disclosing personal information of such Insured Individuals, or providing such personal information to third parties as required, including Insurance Companies.

Where they are Insured Individuals in addition to the Client, or where the Client is a commercial entity, the Client hereby covenants and warrants that the Client has obtained the appropriate consent from all of the insured individuals to disclose their personal information to the Broker for these purposes accordingly.

If the Client wishes to restrict the general nature of this consent to any specific area or make other enquiries or express concerns, the Client may do by notifying the Broker's Privacy Officer, Jason Bucovetsky, in writing.

Fee Agreement, Disclosure and Acknowledgement

Fees are not part of ,nor are they combined with an insurance premium. Fees are charged in addition to the premium and cost of obtaining an insurance policy.

The Client understands he/she is under no obligation to purchase insurance from the Broker and that fees charged by the Broker are in addition to commissions received by the Broker.

The Client understands fees as outlined are additional to any fees they may be directly charged by their insurance company.

Payment of the fees does not mean the Client has insurance coverage nor does it guarantee placement of insurance coverage.
